I personally sustained numerous injuries to multiple body parts, (Neck, Back, Bi-lateral shoulders, Bi-lateral knees and many more). I underwent 6 separate surgeries to repair these body parts, and was told by my Orthopedic Surgeon, that I would lucky, if I would be able to walk without the assistance of a cane the rest of my life.

Dr. Vas and Caprice of Next Level Wellness, worked together in setting up a Physical Therapy plan me, following each surgery. Both Dr.Vas and Caprice, personally conducted the therapy themselves and I have nothing but proven positive results. Though I am retired from the force, I am able to work for my own company fulltime and enjoy life; walking, hiking, camping, scuba diving and much more without the use of a cane. I am living proof that these professionals know what they are doing.
